

Anderson, IN – U.S. Congressman Mike Pence encourages veterans to participate in a nationwide online job fair to be held on Thursday, November 10, 2011, from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. ET. This virtual job fair is co-hosted by the Department of Veterans Affairs and Milicruit.com. Currently, more than 60 employers nationwide have signed up to participate in the virtual job fair. Veterans have the opportunity to visit employer booths, view job openings, apply for jobs, live chat with recruiters and even participate in video interviews. For information on how to pre-register, go to <http://www.veteranscareerfair.com/>.

"This week on Veterans Day we will pause to honor all of those who fought to defend our freedom. Our nation owes its veterans a debt of gratitude it can never repay. The least we can do is help them find good jobs," said Pence. "I want to thank the Department of Veterans Affairs and Milicruit.com for sponsoring this online job fair, and I would like to encourage Hoosier veterans to participate in it."
